Communists Behind in First Italian Returns

WORLD WATCHES ITALIAN VOTE. Italian Premier Alcide de Gasperi (above), leader of the Christian Democratic party, casts his ballot in the internationally crucial Italian general election in Rome. The premier was among the first of 25-million Italians who went to the polls in an atmosphere of complete peace and order; a sharp contrast to the rioting which preceded election day in many provinces. Flood Waters Now Receding

Ohio River Expected To Continue Fall from High Level; Death Toll of 8.

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, April 19—The Ohio river was falling today after seven days of continuous rise from a 40.8 stage to a 64.8 foot crest.

The U. S. weather bureau predicted the river would drop below the 52-foot flood stage by Friday afternoon if there were no affecting rains.

Scattered showers forecast for the Ohio valley today and tonight, but George R. Marth, river forecaster, said they could slow the river's rate of fall only slightly.

As the crest moved down stream, the engineers reported a private levee of the Martin Box Co., at Aurora was topped by the water and the plant forced to close. The Indianapolis Chair company also suspended operations.

City Manager Oscar Hesch of Newport, Ky., across the river, where a 10-foot high sandbag dike was built to hold the licking river waters out of a 46 block area, predicted victory if the dike could be maintained 48 more hours.

Army engineers credited flood protection projects with preventing millions of dollars in damage throughout the area.

Col. B. B. Talley, Louisville, district engineer for the Ohio river, estimated the Mill Creek dam barrier at Cincinnati had prevented at least $3,000,000 in damage. The barrier protects the major portion of Cincinnati's heavy industry.

Col. Talley said the dam already had saved nearly one-third of its construction cost of approximately $10,000,000.

Eight deaths have been attributed to the flood.

The flood affected 31,000 people in a four-state area.

CHINA ELECTS CHIANG DICTATOR PRESIDENT

By The Associated Press

NANKING, April 19—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, who said he didn't want the job, was elected China's first constitutional president today with virtually dictatorial powers. He had asked instead to be named premier—but with just such allout powers.

In orderly, machine-like procedure which lacked enthusiasm the strong-willed man who has headed the government since 1928 received 2,430 votes in the national assembly.

Chu Cheng, elderly president of the judicial Yuan (council) was given 269 votes in an obvious gesture to provide the semblance of a contest. He was in Shanghai.

Chiang was elected to serve six years under the new constitution. He was voted the same broad emergency powers for the "period of national crisis" that he has held.

Meantime, in the civil war, a government drive to clear Communist troops from flanks of the Peiping-Paoting railway was reported in full swing. Rail traffic between the two cities, 90 miles apart, long has been ruptured.

Former Marion Man Dies Aiding Friend As Fire Destroys Home

A double tragedy occurred at 9:30 a. m. yesterday morning when Clyde Nicodemus, 47, Delaware county farmer and former Marion garage and trailer camp and gasoline convoy operator, collapsed and died of a heart attack while helping a neighbor, Will Lavender, carry furniture out of his burning farm home 1½ miles northwest of Warrensburg.

Mr. Nicodemus had rushed to the assistance of his neighbor when the newly remodeled two family house took fire from a defective flue. Furniture had been removed from the first floor and Nicodemus was helping Lavender carry a piece of furniture from the second floor when he fell, a victim of a heart attack. He died almost instantly in the arms of Mr. Lavender.

"I just didn't care about the house burning after that," friends reported Lavender as saying after the death of his friend.

The deceased was removed to the Robinson-Brackney funeral home in Delaware. Funeral arrangements are incomplete pending the notification of his only son Lewis Nicodemus who is on duty with the U. S. Coast Guard.

Mr. Nicodemus operated a garage and repair shop at 1111 North Main street from 1935, when he built the garage building which now houses the Glenn Walraven Tractor Sales, until selling his business to Walraven in the spring of 1944. He was also well known as the operator of a large wrecking service here as well as operating a gasoline convoy service for Gulf Oil Co. During the war he also operated a trailer camp at his North Main street location which at the peak of operations of the Scioto Ordnance Plant accommodated 60 trailers.

He then opened a garage and parking lot on North Prospect street near Jack Johnson motors which he operated until the fall of 1944 when he left Marion after purchasing a farm in Delaware county which he operated until his death.

He was survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Nicodemus, a son Lewis in the U. S. Coast Guard, his father, Oscar Nicodemus at Toledo, four sisters, Mrs. R. A. Hanley, Mrs. Edward Hanley, and Mrs. A. J. Weatherall all of Toledo, and Mrs. Emory Swartz of Perrysburg, and brothers, Orville and Arthur Nicodemus, both of Toledo.

Construction was still in progress on the roof of the Lavender house and building materials to be used to finish the structure were also consumed by the flames which destroyed the dwelling. The house had been occupied by Mr. Lavender, his family, and by Warren Lavender, his son and his family. Both families were left homeless by the fire, which completely destroyed their home.

San Francisco Has Quake, Recalls '06

By The Associated Press

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19—A sharp little earthquake hit the San Francisco bay area yesterday—the forty-second anniversary of the disastrous 1906 'quake and fire. This one, centering apparently in Marin and Contra Costa counties across the bay, did no reported damage.

ANTI-REDS FAR AHEAD IN EARLY VOTE REPORTS

First Official Count in Italy Due Tomorrow; Total May Set Record High Mark.

By The Associated Press

ROME, April 19—Premier Alcide De Gasperi's Christian Democrat party took a lead of more than two-to-one over the Communist-led popular front today in first scattered returns from Italy's fateful election.

These returns in the senate contest, which is being counted first, were mostly from the Rome and Milan areas.

Milan, in the heart of the strongly leftist north, was giving the Catholic Premier's party a comfortable lead over the Popular Front. Unofficial returns from 86 Milan voting sections gave the Christian Democrats 31,108, the Popular Front 21,246 and the Rightist National bloc, 206.

The voting was extremely heavy—estimated at 90 per cent of those eligible—and this was regarded as good news for the anti-Communists.

In Rome, two voting precincts a block away from De Gasperi's home gave the Christian Democrats 817, the Popular Front 175; and the pro-Fascist Italian Social Movement (MSI) 76; Republican, 62 and National Bloc, 21.

Reports "Tranquil" Election

Minister of Interior Mario Scelba announced the voting in this crucial test between Russia and the western democracies ended with "tranquility." He warned against "alarmist news" being circulated by secret radios and unnamed persons. He said some arrests already had been made.

The polls closed after 21 hours of voting full of meaning for the future of Europe and possibly for the peace of the world.

Officials estimated 90 per cent of the 29,000,000 eligibles cast ballots. This may be a world record for a free election—and a heavy vote was generally interpreted as favoring anti-Communists.

Counting began immediately. The senate vote is counted first, and early returns are expected late tonight. First returns on 574 seats in the chamber of deputies are due tomorrow.

Anti-Communists were greatly heartened by the tremendous outpouring of votes, since they are convinced a heavy vote will count against the Left.

Officials forecast a record vote of well over 90 per cent of the eligibles would be recorded in the two-day balloting for the new Italian republic's first parliament—in which the big issue is whether Italy will follow the eastern or the western way of life.

The count of votes was slated to start when the polls closed at 2 p. m. today (7 a. m. Marion time) and first results are expected tonight (about 4 p. m. Marion time).

Report No Serious Trouble

Government spokesman made light of two attacks on Army ammunition dumps in northern Italy early Sunday—the only incidents of violence reported. They termed one a "false alarm" and minimized the importance of the other.

The skies cleared over Rome this morning, but remained overcast elsewhere in the nation. It rained over much of Italy yesterday.

Rome's four populous districts polled 28 per cent of their vote yesterday. Only four provinces in the north—the Leftists' stronghold—failed to reach 80 per cent, but voting in the south lagged.

It appeared the significance of the election was driving virtually every eligible Italian to the polls.

The Communist newspaper L'Unita charged Christian Democrat poll officials with passing out ballots with their emblem ready checked. The paper asserted 20 nuns and priests had been arrested for irregularities.

Observers predicted the final percentage would go well past 90 per cent.

That would be an all time record for a free Italian election, eclipsing even the 89.1 per cent of Italians registered in June, 1946, when they chose between the monarchy and a republic. Now they are choosing members of a chamber of deputies and a senate for the new republic.

Atomic Weapon Test Announced

By The United Press

WASHINGTON, April 19 — An atomic weapon, presumably an improved atomic bomb, has been tested in great secrecy at Eniwetok atoll in the far Pacific, it was announced today.

The atomic energy commission announced that the test had been made. For security reasons, it said the date of the test is not being announced.

The test was carried out secretly in the remote and heavily-guarded Pacific island under conditions in contrast with the great publicity given the previous tests at the island of Bikini.

It was not known whether the new test was the long-planned deep water test of a bomb, or a new experiment over land.

The commission announced last July 22 that the Eniwetok atoll had been set aside as a proving ground in the Pacific for the test of atomic weapons.

On Dec. 1 the commission announced that construction had been started on the installations necessary for carrying out the test of the atomic weapons.

Staffing and organization of the proving grounds was announced on Dec. 22 and eight days later the commission announced that a defensive ring had been thrown around the grounds.

The commission said that "hazards" would exist within a certain area around the grounds.

Construction at the proving grounds was completed in the "late winter months" by units of the army, navy and air force which made up a joint task force 7.

On Jan. 31, the commission issued a report to congress in which it said that its principal goal in weapons research "is the scientific and engineering perfection of improved designs." In other words, the commission was seeking to build better atomic bombs.

The commission's report on Jan. 31 said the operation of the Eniwetok proving grounds will "provide new fundamental data and a broader understanding of the phenomena of nuclear fission, for peaceful as well as for military application of atomic energy."

Union Officials Withhold Comment

By The Associated Press

PITTSBURGH, April 19—Local officials of the United Mine Workers received here with cautious silence today word that John L. Lewis har been found guilty of contempt of court.

John P. Busarello, district 5 president of the UMW at Pittsburgh said: "No comment this morning. Let's wait until tomorrow."

Tuesday is the date set for Washington sentencing of the union and Lewis, its president.

Frank Hughes, district 3 president at Greensburg, Pa., said: "No comment. About all our men are back at work."

A spokesman for one UMW local which was still idle commented:

"I don't know what will happen now. We're not working yet and it looks as if we won't."

FACTORY BUILDING NEW MACHINE SHOP

Metal Products Co. Starts Work on Addition.

Construction of a new machine shop is underway at the Marion Metal Products Co. George E. Herr, vice president and general manager reported today.

Present plans call for the building to be completed by mid-August. It will add 26,000 square feet to present plant space and link the west and north plants at the Cheney avenue grounds.

Excavations for footings for the new building were begun last week by the F. & Y. Building Service Co. of Columbus, who will build the new addition. To be constructed of brick and steel the building measures 216 by 121 feet.

It has been designed to house the present machine shop located in the North plant, making the present shop space available for shipping and loading facilities now being carried on in the plant yard.

The modern and completely equipped new building is estimated to cost approximately $200,000.

HERBERT GIVES ORDER TO BUILD

Governor's Instructions To Begin Work on State's New Office Edifice.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., April 19—Gov. Thomas J. Herbert today ordered immediate construction of a new state office building on a site now used as a parking lot.

The site is at the northeast corner of Front and State streets here, across Front street from the $12,000,000 state office building constructed in 1932.

Gov. Herbert gave instructions to proceed immediately to Public Works Director George B. Sowers. He said the state now was leasing 190,000 square feet of office space in Columbus outside the capitol and state office buildings at a cots of $180,000 a year. The new building, he said, should have 450,000 to 500,000 square feet.

The last legislature appropriated $5,000,000 for a new building and the recent session of the present legislature re-appropriated the money. Gov. Herbert, Sowers, and legislative leaders conferred on the project Friday.

Herbert said it probably would not be possible to buy the land and put up the building for the $5,000,000. However, it will take six months to prepare plans and the next session of the legislature can decide in time whether to make more money available to expand the plans.

The building, the governor said, is to be "purely commercial and utilitarian," with a basic floor plan to use movable partitions for offices.

The site, recommended by Sowers and approved by the governor, has 250 feet on Front street and 187½ on State street.

Original plans of the present office building called for wings to be constructed later at each end. The ground for the wings now is a small park development, and the Columbus City Planning commission has opposed putting any new buildings there.

RAILROADS GRANTED FREIGHT RATE BOOST

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 19—The Interstate Commerce commission today granted the railroads a further temporary freight rate increase estimated to cost the public about $300,000,000 a year. Commission officials figured the raise will average about four per cent above present rates.

The ICC last October, acting on the railroad's plan for a 30 per cent advance in freight rates, authorized a temporary 10 per cent increase to meet higher operating costs.

Still another 10 per cent temporary increase was granted in January.

GOLDSBOROUGH SETS SENTENCE FOR TOMORROW

Hint That He's at Least Considering Jail Term Seen in Remarks.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 19—Justice T. Alan Goldsborough today held John L. Lewis guilty of criminal contempt for not sending the striking coal miners back to the pits when ordered by the court.

The judge announced he will pronounce sentence tomorrow.

He is the same judge who fined Lewis $10,000 and the United Mine Workers $3,500,000 for disregarding a court stop-strike order in 1946. The supreme court cut the union's fine to $700,000 but let Lewis' stand.

Goldsborough, before adjourning court, hinted he is at least considering a jail term for Lewis this time.

He said he did not think, because of the seriousness of the case, it could be decided on the basis of "expediency."

When he fined Lewis in December, 1946, in the other case, the judge said he had to consider the "expediency" involved and was giving a fine instead of a jail sentence.

So his talk of not regarding "expediency" this time suggested strongly Goldsborough is thinking of a jail term for the miners' chieftain.

In the 1946 case, Lewis and the union were found guilty of both civil and criminal contempt.

Calls for Recommendations

Goldsborough asked the government to bring in recommendations for punishment at 10 a. m. tomorrow.

Goldsborough said:

"The court thinks there is no difficulty in deciding the evidence beyond all doubt is sufficient to show the defendants are guilty of criminal contempt."

Later, he said "of course the defendants also are guilty of civil contempt on a technicality," but added:

"The court doesn't emphasize the civil contempt."

This indicated the judge might impose a lighter fine on the union this time.

Goldsborough said what the court will do in the way of punishment "is being watched by every lawless element in the world—also by all decent people—to ascertain whether or not the court's have the power to protect the citizens of this country in their normal way of life."

Government officials are watching it also to see what effect it may have on coal mining. Only about two-thirds of the miners have yet gone back to work. Many have said they were waiting for the outcome of Lewis' contempt trial.

No Comment by Lewis

Lewis sat with an apparent half sneer on his lips as Goldsborough talked extemporaneously about his ruling.

When court adjourned, Lewis waved aside reporters. He walked silently out with his lawyers.

After the judge's decision, Lewis' attorneys made the usual routine motion to set aside the verdict. Goldsborough denied it.

Presumably, the union will carry the case to the supreme court as it did the 1946 one.

Goldsborough granted a request by the justice department that a hearing be held Wednesday at 10 a. m. on the government's request for a temporary injunction under the Taft-Hartley law. The present court order expires next Friday, April 23.

This simply means the government wants to keep in effect a court order against a coal strike.

Calls It a Strike

Goldsborough also decided the 29-day mine shutdown was a strike called by Lewis.

He said terms "dishonored" and "honored" were words used by Lewis as a code to start and end the walkout.

Goldsborough said a strike can be called without using the word "strike."

He declared:

"If a nod or any wink or a code was used in place of a word 'strike,' it was just as much of a strike as though the word strike had been used."

The "miners walked out when told the agreement was dishonored," Goldsborough said.

"They came back when told the agreement was honored.

"Now what else can that be except a code?" Goldsborough said.

"As long as a union is functioning as a union it must be held responsible for the mass action of its members."

He said this is a new principle of law he was setting for the first time in court history.

OSES REPORTS ON WORK HERE

Employment in Marion at Lowest Point Since January, 1947.

Current employment level in the 34 major Marion industries is at its lowest point since January, 1947, according to the monthly labor market report issued today by the Marion office of the Ohio State Employment service

Present employment figure is approximately 900 below that of a year ago when 7,926 workers were employed in the 34 industries

Employers in these industries predict little change in the number at work in their concerns within the next two months, the employment service reported As of April 1, 875 workers were seeking employment through the local office

From Jan 15 to March 15, total employment in the 31 industries decreased 261 workers Manufacturing employment declined almost 3 per cent during the period, while the non-manufacturing workers fell off 6 per cent Number of workers in the retail trade fell off about one-sixth, due to seasonal layoffs A combination of material shortages and high prices resulting in lack of orders was responsible for the decline.

Female employment decreased one-third from January 15 to March 15, to the present time, female employment figure of the 34 industries continued to decrease. Reason for this decline was the same as for the total employment decline

See Little Change

According to records in the Marion office, these 34 employers predict little change in the number at work in their concerns by July. Between now and May 15, the 34 reporting industries anticipate a net increase in employment of 31 It is anticipated that no additional workers will be needed from May 15 to July 15 Practically all of the 31 workers needed by May 15, will be recalls Rate of recalls and possibility of expansion will be limited by availability of materials and the trend in prices.

New Plant Coming

It is anticipated in addition to the small demand in the 31 industries, that recruitment for construction workers for the Monsanto Chemical Co, plant will begin sometime in May.

Number of workers seeking employment through the Marion office during March remained virtually the same as for February when 875 workers including 265 veterans were seeking employment through the local office on April 1 Due to limited industrial activity in Marion at present, it is quite difficult to find a source for referring these workers for employment The greatest percentage of these workers own their own homes in Marion and do not desire to work outside the commuting distance of Marion

Over the past six months the rate of job-leaving has continued to exceed job-taking — another indication of shrinking employment During the period turnover has also been declining

The weekly volume of claimants totalled 612 for the month of February and 314 for the month of March.

Roving Reports

By Hal Boyle

BROOKLYN

THE task of returning American war dead will be completed in half the expected time.

Originally the Army thought it would take five years and $200,000,000 This estimate was based on the belief that next-of-kin would request the return for reburial in this country of about 80 per cent of the men who died overseas.

Today the quartermasters corps hopes to complete the program in about two years. Survivors of only 69 per cent of the combat dead of World War II have asked they be returned from the lands where they fell

Hal Boyle

An interesting sidelight.

Of 242,398 letters dispatched by last February to next-of-kin asking their wishes, some 54,656 have never been answered

What does this figure mean? It means that one out of every five persons hasn't taken the trouble to notify the government what he wants done with the body of a man who when alive listed him as his nearest or dearest relative

A charitable interpretation of this inaction is that the 20 per cent who didn't reply merely took this means of indicating that they wanted their war dead to remain where they are.

In 10 189 other cases the letters of inquiry were returned as undeliverable The next-of-kin no longer could be found

Of some 115 637 reply forms returned and now classified, 79,751—or 69 per cent—requested the serviceman be returned here for burial in a private or national cemetery.

A MAJORITY OF THE war dead pass through the New York port of embarkation on the way to one of the 15 distribution centers throughout the country, where military escorts are assigned to accompany them to their final resting place.

The task is carried on with simple dignity Each transport is met by 300 to 400 survivors, representatives of veterans groups, and a Protestant, Catholic and Jewish chaplain A short memorial service is held.

The dead are listed individually on the transport's passenger roster After each name is the notation—(deceased)

"ONE MOTHER WHO came down to meet the ship bore up well until she saw her boy listed as a passenger," said Capt Larry Phelan, combat veteran of the First Infantry division. 'Then she wept."

The caskets are sealed, as required by law in all states The question troubled parents most often:

"You're sure it's our boy, and there's been no mistake?"

They are satisfied by the Army's answer:

"You would never have received a letter of inquiry if the identification hadn't been positive."

BODIES TRAVEL home by train from the distribution centers except when the burial site is within 40 miles. In these cases motor hearses are used

Sometimes as one transport unfreights its war dead at the base here, another is being loaded by troops sailing for overseas posts. The other day a long line of trucks carrying troops assigned to duty abroad rolled into the base as a cortege of somber hearses pulled up, each carrying a serviceman done with life and war

A man watching from a window as the columns of the quick and the dead passed at the gate said:

"It seems symbolic."

This is the second of two columns.

The experts go overboard

"This time it's Hudson

the only car you step down into!"

AN auto-wise Detroit editor writes, "Hudson . . . will still be in a sellers' market after the buyers' market returns!" A Cleveland motor-car writer, "The public is in for a thrill!" From a San Francisco auto editor's column, 'Hudson has really hit the jackpot!"

And so it goes—right around the nation! Men who have "seen everything" in automobiles go for the New Hudson.

It is the only American-built motor car you step down into when entering, not up on! This new development brings you sensational advantages—among them, newly streamlined beauty that would otherwise be impractical.

This new kind of motor car is only five feet from ground to top, yet by stepping down, you get more head room and roomier seats than in any other mass produced car built today—and there's good road clearance, too!

Because you step down, Hudson's new, all steel Monobilt body-and-frame* completely encircles you, even outside the rear wheels, with a rugged, box-steel foundation frame—and this brings you a new measure of added safety.

You ride within this frame—cradled between axles—not on top of a frame as in the past. Hudson's new, lower center of gravity and rugged basic structure give this car delightful roadability—a hug-the-road way of going especially on curves, that is so safe, so serene, so smooth, it is unlike anything you've known before!

See the new motor car the experts cheer. The nearest Hudson dealer will show it to you now! Hudson Motor Car Company, Detroit 14.

STEEL OUTPUT MAY SOON BE RESTORED

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, April 19—Provided "full resumption of mining is effected this week, steel output will be fully restored by early May," said the magazine Steel today.

Up to the end of last week production loss caused by the coal strike amounted to nearly one million tons, estimated the trade journal. Experience has shown that post-strike losses will raise that figure several hundred thousand tons, it added

The national steelmaking rate was estimated at 73 per cent last week, down five points The drop was attributed in part to flood conditions in the Ohio river valley. Before the coal strike, the rate was 96 per cent of capacity.

"Talk is heard in the trade of possible price advances later in the year but none of the steel producers have indicated they are planning such action," said Steel. "Continued rise in costs, of course, will be the determining factor, and in event a wage increase comes out of the current negotiations between the steelmakers and the union some upward price adjustments would not be surprising.

"Increased defense requirements and European aid," as well as the tonnage lost during the coal strike, will cause a further tightening of the supply situation, the publication reported

Your Good Health

By DR HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

A Serious Lung Infection

In the patient with bronchiectasis, the tubes of the lungs are greatly dilated or stretched As a result, secretions accumulate in the lungs and infection follows. The consequences add up to a great deal of unpleasantness for the patient In the first place, he is subjected to exhausting attacks of coughing during which he brings up a great deal of foul-smelling sputum He may have occasional bouts of fever and, usually, in addition, suffers from weakness and poor general health

Many methods for treating this disorder have been suggested In recent times, penicillin and streptomycin have been used to help overcome the infection, although they will not, of course, get rid of the dilated bronchi

In carrying out the treatment, a solution containing salt, calcium chloride, and water is used This alone is effective in clearing stagnant secretions from the lungs After several such washings, penicillin or streptomycin can be added to the solution as additional aids in getting rid of any infection which may be present

In either case, before the solution is used the back part of the throat and the voice-box are anesthetized by spraying with the proper anesthetic After the patient becomes accustomed to the procedure less and less anesthetic will be necessary

After the anesthesia is complete the solution is allowed to run into the voice-box from a syringe fitted with a tube If coughing occurs during the treatment the solution is being allowed to run in too rapidly. After several minutes of taking the solution the patient simply coughs up the solution, and the secretions are eliminated from the lungs with it If the patient learns to breathe deeply as the fluid flows in, it will reach all parts of the lungs

At first the treatments are given three or more times a week During the first two weeks the treatments are carried out entirely by the doctor Later on when the doctor believes that the patient is competent to do so, he is permitted to take the treatments at home and returns to the doctor at intervals for observation

This treatment has been found of value in all cases of bronchiectasis Reactions to it are rare The treatment should not however be used in those who have recently had some acute infection of the nose throat, or lungs

Recent Wet Weather Threat To Marion County Oats Crop

[illegible] county's oats planters [illegible] feeling mighty low" these [illegible] 1948 oats crop prospects [illegible] like a repetition of 1947, the [illegible] year on record here, when [illegible] 20 per cent of the normal [illegible] crop was harvested. Only [illegible] the previous record low year in 1926 did local farmers ever suffer the difficulty of wet spring [illegible] weather prevalent during [illegible] spring, but both will be [illegible] as better oats years than [illegible] if indications thus far materialize.

Frank G. Montgomery, chairman of the Marion County Agricultural Conservation Association said today records of the association show oats to be fifth in crop acreage in Marion county. Crops are planted on most of Marion county's 2,135 farms in the following order: the greatest acreage to corn, wheat second, grass and hay crops third, soybeans fourth and oats fifth.

Early Planting Season

Oats being a cool crop should be in by April 20 for best results but present indications are that it will be impossible here this year. I have planted oats as late as May 5 and gotten a pretty good yield but that was highly unusual," said Mr. Montgomery.

Although there has been little spring plowing because of the wet weather Mr. Montgomery felt corn crop prospects looked good. While some corn planters feel corn should be in by early May, he believes that with the more extensive use of fertilizer and hybred seed corn a farmer can plant later than formerly and still get a greater crop yield.

Wheat Looks Good

Wheat prospects look exceptionally good, except where high waters have flooded out the low lying fields along river bottoms. Grass and hay crops are equally encouraging. As fine stands of clover as have been seen here in some time are now growing even better Mr. Montgomery said.

W. L. Williams, local conservator of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service added his opinion of the effect of the recent prolonged and heavy rains on unplanted lands in the county.

Uncovered corn and bean fields, which were left fallow after crop time last season and not provided with a cover crop are suffering heavily from soil loss from the heavy rains and damage to minerals and plant nutrients amounting to thousands of dollars is occurring daily, Mr. Williams estimates.

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

I FELT no jubilance at my victory over Georges. He was like a beaten, humiliated school boy in his adject surrender, and I felt stirring within me the sympathy against which Dicky had warned me with such burlesqued melodrama.

But I was not thinking of Dicky's warning as I answered the royal playboy. I was trying to phrase my reply to him in as kindly a fashion as possible.

"You are to do exactly nothing, my dear boy," I told him, trying to make my voice and manner maternal. "You will remain here with Mr. 'K'"—

"As my jailer," he interpolated bitterly.

"Don't be idiotic!" I said sharply. "You know very well that you are being guarded because your life is in danger, and my father has put the cleverest man on his staff in charge of your guards."

"I know," he said with sudden humility. "I beg your pardon, your father's, and Mr. 'K.'s"

I had the sudden impulse to tell him that I would issue a blanket pardon for all three of us, then sternly repressed the gibe.

"There's no need to do that," I said. "You haven't offended anybody yet. And as long as you keep inside the house, I don't imagine there will be much limit on your activities. There are plenty of good books, we have all the latest magazines, and we have a very good radio. There's a 'rumpus room' in the basement with billiard and pool tables, and, I think, boxing gloves and fencing foils. I have heard my husband say that Mr. 'K.' is adept at most games, but I am sure he never will intrude upon you. However, if you wish him to have any bouts with you at anything, I am sure he will oblige."

I had a sudden mirthful vision of Dicky adding, "and beat the trousers right offen you,' but I stifled it, and was glad to see Georges' face brighten, involuntarily, I guessed. He was in no mood for planned cheerfulness.

"Your program sounds very attractive," he said stiffly.

"Of course you will be bored to tears," I told him truthfully, "but it will be only for a few days. Then the house party of the Veritzens and the Grahams which my father has planned as camouflage for your wedding with Olina, will descend upon you, and from that time on, you and Olina will be caught up in wedding preparations. But I promise you now, solemnly, that I shall make opportunities for long uninterrupted interviews with your liege lady."

The suffering was banished from his eyes now, and a look of hopeful expectation was replacing it. Then I might have expected it, for Georges is always dramatic—he leaped to his feet, crossed to me, and went down upon one knee in courtier fashion before me. He caught my hand, and raised it to his lips, kissed it fervently, and murmured:

"You are so good, so kind! How can I ever thank you?"

I sent up some thanks of my own that I had arranged to call Dicky on the house telephone when my interview with Georges should be finished. I could imagine the "ribbing" I should get if he could witness this performance.

But I took my hand away rather abruptly.

"Thank you, Georges," I said, "but we mustn't waste any more time in thanks. I just want to be sure of one thing. You will not say anything to Olina, or to Mary, about his mad notion of yours."

He rose to his feet, and bowed to me a bit theatrically.

"You have my word," he said. Then I saw a look of speculation creep into his eyes.

"How could I say anything to Mary?" he asked. "I thought her uncle, your husband, had forbidden me to speak to her."

Candidate for Court Campaigns in Marion

Henry A. Middleton, of Toledo, a candidate for the Republican nomination for judge of the Ohio supreme court at the May primary, visited Marion Saturday renewing acquaintances with Marion attorneys and conferring with local GOP leaders.

Attorney Middleton, former president of the Lucas County Bar association and Toledo Chamber of Commerce has the official endorsement of the Northwestern Ohio Bar association, the Wood County Bar association. He is a candidate at the request of the Toledo Bar association. GOP county committees that have endorsed him include those of Franklin, Hamilton, Lucas and Wood counties.

The Toledo lawyer is competing for the Republican nomination against four other candidates including Common Pleas Judge Guy B. Findley of Elyria, former Common pleas Judge Clinton M. Boyd, of Middletown and Kingsley A. Taft, of Cleveland.

Judgeship sought is the one held by Judge Robert A. Sohngen, Hamilton Democrat who was appointed to the bench following service as liquor control administrator under former Governor Frank J. Lausche. Judge Sohngen is a candidate for re-election.

His brother, Judge George S. Middleton, of Bellefontaine, is well known here as a member of the Third district court of appeals.

Batter Up!

THIS week is the start of the major league baseball season, during which one charley-horse or one lame arm may become the subject of thousands of conversations. Ted Williams' ability to get his weight behind the ball, and Joe DiMaggio's brittle extremities rank equal with politics and the world situation as legitimate subjects for barbershop strategists.

This is the season when old-timers look over the current crop of players and decide there isn't one who could carry the glove of Cobb, Ruth, Wagner, Young, Johnson or Matthewson. Too many big league teams, they will tell you, are staffed by fugitives from the three-eye league. It's mere happenstance that many of these old-timers are among the game's most avid followers.

So let the first batter get a toehold at the plate, let the pitcher grip the ball and step on the mound—and may the schedule run from start to finish without the contentious off-the-field exchanges and word-fights that marked last season.

Degrees of Treason

CONVICTION of Robert H. Best, former European news correspondent, on a charge of treason for beaming German radio propaganda to the United States during World War II adds to confusion about the highest of all crimes.

Best was "levying war" against the United States, in the sense that propaganda is an implement of warfare. He was "adhering" to an enemy of the United States, giving the enemy "aid and comfort." He was doing these things, moreover, in a time of conflict.

Had he done them in a time of peace, the charge of treason would have lacked substance. Better yet, had he taken the precaution to broadcast his propaganda in the United States instead of from abroad, he could have relied on his constitutional right of free speech for protection. In that event, he would have been suspected of nothing more serious than sedition, which is a light case of treason.

Sedition is almost impossible to track down and defies treatment—is, in fact, an affliction lately become so common it is the doctrine of a political party seeking recognition on election ballots in 1948.

"The Unnecessary War"

PERHAPS the best way to think about repeated proposals for bringing together the heads of states once more, to see what might be done to check the drift into certainty that war is inevitable is to remember that eventually war does become inevitable.

It may be too late already, but if that is true it needs to be made known to all the people whose lives will be affected if it really is. In the preface to his memoirs, Winston Churchill recalls that he once suggested to Franklin D. Roosevelt a proper title for World War II would be "The Unnecessary War" The theme of his writing about the period from 1919 to 1939 will be the "unwisdom" of the English-speaking peoples that permitted a new war to occur.

There may be no comparison, but it is evident that by 1939, when the new war began, it was too late to avert it. There again will be a time when it will be too late to avert war—when too many plans and commitments will have been made and too many people will have made up their minds that war must be fought at any cost.

The question is whether that time has been reached or whether there is still a chance that the heads of states, seeing what lies ahead if they continue in the same direction, might be able to change their progress toward unnecessary war III.

A Call for More Ships

NAVY SECRETARY SULLIVAN says he will ask that the allotment for merchant marine construction and ship improvements in the approaching fiscal year be increased from $39,000,000 to $100,000,000. This would provide a start toward the 50 passenger vessels and the 170 tankers the secretary hopes to have available by 1951. There also must be what he describes as "high speed, high quality cargo vessels" to provide a balanced merchant fleet.

What many an American wonders is why, so soon after a war in which a vast fleet of merchant ships flew our flag, it is necessary to start another emergency building program, the third in three decades. Also important is whether the ships will be consigned to storage if the emergency doesn't develop.

In its report last November, the President's merchant marine advisory committee suggested that what is needed is a new approach to the whole merchant marine problem, with revisions of the merchant marine act of 1936 and the ship sales act of 1946. Before new ships start sliding down the ways, a policy should be worked out to keep them gainfully employed in peacetime.

Deaths from the childhood diseases, measles, scarlet fever, whooping cough and diphtheria in the United States are only about one-sixth as frequent today as they were 10 years ago.

Scanning the Record

By George E. Sokolsky

Conditions Not Ideal in China—or Any Place.

WHILE the propagandists for the new world beat the drums of China's failures, Dean Roscoe Pound of Harvard is in that country seeking to improve its laws. He writes to the Harvard Law School Record:

"It is no wonder that conditions in China today are not ideal. They are far from ideal in any country. But there is by no means the general condition of demoralization, corruption and inefficiency which is portrayed in American newspapers. The gravity of news from abroad increases with the square of the distance. In the clippings from the American press which my friends send me from time to time I can't recognize the land in which I am living . . ."

SOKOLSKY

That is so similar to my own experience there. I recall when Chiang Kai-shek first emerged, we called him the "Red General." He was then associated with Michael Borodin, representative of the Third International, and General Bluecher, representative of the Red army. These Russians and their associates were experimenting in China with techniques which they have since perfected and used in many countries of Europe. They failed in China, as they did not fail in Poland or Czechoslovakia, because during the Christmas week of 1926, Chiang Kai-shek finally turned on them. They had regarded him as their man, but on the march from Canton to Hankow, Chiang discovered that the Russians were not assisting China to freedom, but that Chiang and his armies were really becoming puppets of Soviet policy.

Question Answered

I was recently asked by a younger Chinese why there was so little resistance in those days by the established governments. The answer is so simple: by strikes, local disturbances, intimidation of shopkeepers, kidnaping the rich and the intellectuals, every area was so disrupted before the southern armies appeared that resistance became utterly impossible. In addition, high emotions were raised over issues that were really extraneous but that were billowed into terrific importance. Violent attacks were made by the revolutionaries against the British and Americans, so that if any northern Chinese accepted foreign advice, other than Russians, or consorted particularly with the British, he came to be regarded as a traitor.

When Chiang Kai-shek broke with the Chinese and Russian Communists during Christmas week of 1926, they were in control of his armies and they were able to stage a massacre in Nanking during which they killed some foreigners. The object of the massacre was to give the impression that Chiang was really responsible for it. Fortunately for him, the truth was readily available and was given to the world by American and British newspapermen without censorship of any kind.

Important Point Emphasized

Dean Pound is wholly correct in his appraisal of the Chinese situation, and it shows that wisdom and experience do count. Some of those who, in recent years, have written on China have been young and too inexperienced to grasp the picture of 450,000,000 human beings in a state of constant revolution. Dean Pound makes this very important point:

"Much is said in American newspapers about exclusion of liberal parties from the government, the necessity of admitting minority parties to a share in the government, and the imperative need of a 'coalition government.' When one sees the actual political situation here, such things sound more like a Gilbert and Sullivan opera than like the practical conduct of government in a democratic republic. No one complained that Republicans were 'excluded from a share in the government' during the long administration of President Roosevelt. I do not suppose even Harry Bridges would say that Mr. Wallace ought at once to be given a place in President Truman's cabinet. I note that the Prohibition party has been resuscitated. But it won't claim that a certain number of seats in congress should be allowed to it as a 'minority party.'"

On Outside Looking In

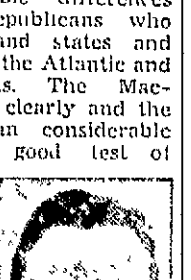
Precisely so. The so-called liberal parties in China are ridiculously unimportant except in news dispatches to American newspapers. I have watched this scene for nearly 30 years. Many of the other so-called liberals in China are merely on the outside hoping to get inside. As Dean Pound says: "Anything that calls itself 'liberal' is supposed to be privileged."

Primaries Clear the Way

By Walter Lippmann

FOR those who believe that the paramount issue in the election is how to change horses in midstream without falling into the river the Nebraska and Wisconsin primaries are encouraging. They show that there are no longer, as there were in 1940 and 1944, irreconcilable differences between the Republicans who live in the inland states and those who live on the Atlantic and Pacific seaboards. The MacArthur campaign clearly and the Taft campaign in considerable measure, were a good test of whether the division persists.

It is now certain that the Old Guard Republican machine no longer has a popular majority among Republicans in any section of the country. The main mass of the party consists of Republicans who are for Stassen, Dewey, or Vandenberg. Among them there are no deep differences. For the rivalry between Stassen and Dewey is personal, and does not sharply divide their followers; in Vandenberg the Republicans have a man who is not only acceptable to all the elements of the new majority but also to all but the frantic fringe of the Old Guard.



LIPPMANN

Therefore, unless the Old Guard politicians choose to defy the will of the mass of the Republicans, a combination worked out by Stassen, Dewey and Vandenberg, and one hope with Taft, can unite the party effectively and be as certain, as it is possible to be in politics, of taking over the administration of the government. A combination of this sort made in June would come very near to making the election campaign a formality. The country and the world would know in June who were to be the president, the vice president, and perhaps also the secretary of state.

The nomination of a Vandenberg-Stassen or a Vandenberg-Dewey ticket in June would assure as much continuity and would create as much confidence as are possible in a year when a change of administration is as necessary as it is unavoidable.

Such a solution of the Republican problem would at the same time open the way to a solution of the problem of the Democrats. This is how to become an effective opposition, and not to be, like the Republicans in 1932 and 1936, so disunited and feeble that they can provide no check and restraint upon the party in power.

This is the conclusive reason why Democratic leaders, who feel responsibility for the party, are compelled to find a way of inducing Mr. Truman to step down. If the main consideration were winning the election, the Democratic leaders could say that Mr. Truman might as well be defeated as any one else.

But the Democrats can not be serious about winning this election. Their concern is to survive as an opposition by electing congressmen and senators and governors and mayors and local officials. There can be little doubt that a national ticket headed by Mr. Truman would be a severe handicap, and perhaps even disastrous. For Mr. Truman, unhappily for him and for his party, not only divides the Democrats, he disintegrates them.

No Reason for Draft

A Vandenberg-Stassen or a Vandenberg-Dewey ticket would put an end to the idea that the Democratic party can be reunited and maintained in power by drafting General Eisenhower. There would be no reason for drafting him, as there might be if the Republicans nominated General MacArthur or Mr. Martin, or even Senator Taft. And there would be no excuse for sacrificing him, as inevitably he would be sacrificed, if he undertook the impossible task of gluing together the Democratic factions that Mr. Truman and Mr. Wallace have jointly and severally torn asunder.

Recognizing that after 16 years in office, it is time to retire, the Democrats could then nominate, not a candidate for president, but a caretaker for the party. The issues which now divide the Democrats would not be settled. They can not be settled. They can only be allowed to subside, once the cause is removed which has aggravated them.

That cause is the feeling in the country that the men closest to President Truman have not been politically disinterested in dealing with the explosive questions of our age—with sectionalism, racialism, nationalism, with the Red menace and the Red scare, and the issues of liberty and of war and peace.

All these questions are objectively difficult and dangerous. But our problems are aggravated by the subjective anxiety, hysteria, and moral disorientation which now pervade our efforts to deal with them. These nervous disorders are in themselves as dangerous as the problems which excite them. They stem—so it seems to me—from a loss of confidence in the authority, the example, and the competence of the inner circle of the Truman administration.

Faint Heart Ne'er Won Senate Seat Fair

A Knoxville citizen who offered for the senate in 1928, 1930, 1934, 1936, 1940, 1942 and 1946 again has announced his candidacy.

He's not like opportunity. It knocks but once.

He's been running longer than Niagara. And has shaken more hands than palsy.

Incidentally, his must be a good, sound platform. It's been built so long that all the planks have petrified.

He ought to start picking up strength before long. Some of the babies he kissed in '28 will be voting this time.

The trouble with most politicians is that they get discouraged too easily. This fellow realizes that some day the voters are going to feel the need for a man with plenty of patience and perseverance . . . and he'll be the logical choice

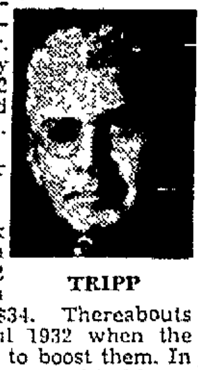
The Taxes We're Paying

By Frank Tripp

HOW much is a billion dollars? Well, it's $7 to each American. Doesn't seem like much. Yet it would have cost every man, woman and child in the land $2,050 to start the U. S. with a clean slate in 1948.

Let's conjure a bit with that $7 per capita. Before the first World War the expenditures of the federal government for 10 years were under $8 per person, per year. For 1918 they jumped to $122 per person and for 1919 to $176. Those were the big first war years.



TRIPP

Then in 1920 they went back to $60 a person and by 1922 were down to a new groove of $34. Thereabouts they stayed until 1932 when the New Deal began to boost them. In 1940 they were up to $71. Meantime the public debt increased 42 billions.

The height of World War II expenditures was 1945—a per person cost of $719. A look at the war period (1942 to 1946) is appalling. For those years expenditures, plus the increased debt, amounted to 541 billion dollars.

In Mr. Average Man's language this amounted to $756 a year for every man, woman and child in the country. On a per average family basis it totals the tidy little fortune of $15,150 a family or $3,150 a year. Incredible as it sounds—there it is.

Then we came to 1947 which finds us with a public debt of 253 billions, or $1,758 per person, plus the year's government cost of 42.5 billions, which was $295 per person. Exclusive of war years, just the interest on the public debt now exceeds the total annual cost of government up to 1932.

So it amounts to this all in our household owe $1,758 each and government's cost to each in 1947 was $295. All of these figures are averages.

Since we have seen that a billion dollars means $7 to each of us it is easy to find where we stand as refers income taxes. But it isn't so easy to figure the hidden taxes which we pay; the taxes added to what we buy.

Hidden taxes get passed on to us an we know that the consumer finally pays them all—sometimes plus. So in reality each of us paid our share of 42.5 billions in 1947, which was $295 a person; including babes in cribs, dependents and unemployed. All who couldn't pay increased the burden of others.

For the moment we'll confine our little study just to income taxes. On the basis of $7 per billion for each in our household. Income taxes are deceiving things to those who pay small amounts. Because they pay little they think that big shots pay the bill. What suckers they are. All who earn and buy pay their share.

We find (at the new tax rates) that a man who earns $100 a week and has a wife and two children will pay a $395 income tax, when it is adjusted for 1947. But, with the hidden tax which he really paid, taxes cost him not $395 but $1,180 (four times $295). So his net earnings, less taxes, were $4,020, or $77 a week.

While he apparently pays only a $395 tax, he has made up the difference of his family's share of government's cost in the hidden taxes added to the price of things which he bought throughout the year. That's why he is making no headway. Government spends more; things cost him more. Wages go up; so do prices.

We see what happens to this man: that reducing his income taxes and collecting the money through hidden taxes just kids the daylights out of the poor guy.

He can never win till that $1,180 comes down and brings prices down with it. To get it down government must cost less.

Before the war, government cost under 10 billions a year. Last year it cost 42.5 billions. Before the war our imaginary man's share was $280, not $1,180.

There is no way under the sun to honestly cut taxes save cutting down expenses. That is just as true of running government as of running a house.

Daily Bible Thought

It is foolish to suppose that the amazingly complex business of life could go on without oversight and direction. We should eagerly welcome God's intervention in our behalf. Ps. 91:11: "He shall give his angels charge over thee to keep thee in all thy ways."

What's Wrong with This Pictur

THE business of ballyhooing the cea heavyweight championship battle betw Joe Louis and Joe Walcott is late getting u way. Here it is mid-April and there is not new on Louis except that he has grown a tache, thinks there will always be an Eng and has bought tow French poodles.

The French poodle business looks bad to us. When you go in for poodles, especially those French ones, you are beginning to soften up. Certainly you are not getting tougher. We just can't picture John L. Sullivan or Jack Dempsey with a Parisien pooch anywhere near.

And, despite his amazing battle against Louis last time, something got to be done to glamorize Walcott. Jun only two months away and no colorful n name for him has as yet been offered. Inflation Must Stop

By TRUMAN TWILL

Consider the common, or restaurant, bun It king-size and full of air to make the custom think he is getting a lot for his money.

The bun is a golden brown on top. It is oh round, so smooth and loosely packed. It yiel to the greedy grasp of the consumer's ou stretched hand like a wad of cotton candy.

The hamburger that cometh in it hangeth n over the edges but hides apologetically in t center like an island, which is a small body something surrounded by a much larger bo of something else.

One eateth and eateth on the edges of t bun without finding the hamburger at all, whi is why one demandeth the ketchup to draw red herring across a trail that apparently leading nowhere.

Or one tries to jazz up the proceedings b lathering the upper half of the bun with mu tard, thus creating an illusion that somethi more worthwhile than a fistful of fluff is bein consumed.

Or one requests a slice of onion to be inserte in the bun on top of the hamburger because a skillful consumer can manipulate the onion int different positions, enabling him to get a littl at each bite, likewise creating an illusion tha something more than a lot of bare bread being eaten leading up to the payoff bite, whic will be the hamburger.

It goes to ridiculous lengths—this art o flossing up the restaurant bun with culina subterfuge. It leadeth even to such subtl dodges as the inclusion of a quantity of vegetable matter featuring pickles, to lead on th hopeful consumer.

It has brought about a thing called an Untid Joseph, commonly known as Sloppy Joe, whic is a loose hash composed of almost everythin that gets inserted in a restaurant bun, bu spread evenly over the surface even unto th edges, where it drips off on the eater's chin an thence to his midriff.

And what is more to the point, it has brough about a state of mind among consumers tha makes the king-size bun seem ludicrous relativ to what is contained in it and any time th manufacturers of same decide to shrink it t the approximate diameter of two inches, o approximately that of the hamburger that goe inside it, no one will complain. The great American fallacy that inflation, which looks lik more but actually is less, is a good thing mus be beaten down somewhere and buns would b a good place to start.

Retired Kenton Banker Files For Social Security at 96

By The Associated Press

KENTON, O., April 19—Henry W. Gramlich, 96-year-old resident, isn't making any brash claims for himself.

But W. Leonard Eley, manager of the Lima office of the social security administration, believes that Gramlich may be the oldest resident of Ohio and possibly the United States to file application for monthly social security payments.

Gramlich was actively engaged in two jobs covered by the social security act until early this year. In January he resigned as vice president of the Kenton First National bank and as vice president of the Ohio Machine Tool Co. He was founder of both enterprises.

Eley said Gramlich's benefit payments would amount to $36 a month.

Still active and keen of mind, Gramlich was a member of the first class to enroll at Ohio Northern university. He recalls the Lincoln-Douglas debates and, although one year too young to participate in it, his memory of the Civil war is vivid.

Among men of national prominence who were his acquaintances were William McKinley, Warren G. Harding and Frank B. Willis.

TAFT, STASSEN IN OHIO SWINGS

Both Girding for Busy week of Primary Campaign; Slate Speaking Itineraries.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, April 19 — Taft-Stassen forces girded today for one of their busiest weeks in the May 4 Ohio primary campaign.

Sen. Robert A. Taft left for Washington last night after he had addressed a meeting of some 300 Geauga county Republicans in Burton. He will return to Ohio Wednesday.

Harold E. Stassen, who is seeking 23 of the state's 53 Republican convention delegates, also is to resume his state campaign Wednesday.

Taft will speak in Ashtabula, Jefferson, Warren, Niles and Youngstown on Wednesday, and Salem, Lisbon, East Liverpool, Carrollton, Cadiz and Steubenville on the following day.

Stassen's swing will take him to Dayton and Middletown on Wednesday and Toledo on Thursday. Friday he will visit Alliance, Canton and Akron, and Saturday he is to make several appearances in Cleveland.

Taft told the Burton meeting yesterday he wished Stassen had spent the last two years in congress, helping him fight the New Deal.

He declared the former Minnesota governor could have been elected to the senate, "but he sent another man and spent two years campaigning for president."

Referring to Stassen's claim he is more liberal than Taft, the Ohio senator said:

"I don't know what he means he is 'more liberal' in. Liberal means more freedom. The New Deal is not liberal. Our cause is for a more liberal country under the principles of freedom rather than turning it over to the federal bureaus."

Taft said President Truman would restore all war agencies if his party gets into power."

He described the Democrats as "divided, distressed and demoralized."

MRS. NICHOLAS' HOME SCENE OF MEETING

Members of Circle 7 of the First Presbyterian church were entertained at a 1:30 o'clock dessert luncheon Thursday at the home of Mrs. P. F. Nicholas of 190 Clover avenue. Serving as assistant hostess was Mrs. C. B. Strother.

Mrs. R. I. Butterworth, leader, opened the meeting with a poem, "I Saw God Wash the World Last Night," followed by prayer. Members responded to roll call with verses from Psalms, and 16 calls in April were reported. Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held May 14 in the McElhaney room on North State street.

The program consisted of devotions from the 37th Psalm and prayer by Mrs. W. H. Pohler, and verses read by Mrs. S. W. Mills on the themes, "Jacob's Sons Buy Corn" and "Judah's Plea."

CIRCLE HOLDS SEWING

An all day sewing meeting of Circle No. 2 of First Presbyterian church was held at the church Thursday, with luncheon at noon and making of rugs featuring the afternoon session. Mrs. Howard L. Olewiler was a guest. Mrs. Hubert Turner presided for business, and Mrs. George Bechtel conducted devotions and gave a report on missionary work. A letter of thanks was read from a clinic to which the circle sends supplies for distribution to Haitian missions. Mrs. Turner gave a report on a recent executive board meeting. Programs for the circle year were presented the members. It was announced that the next meeting will be an all day sewing at the church.

CUT NON-DEFENSE COSTS, SMITH URGES

Reduction Demanded in View of Arms Increase.

WASHINGTON, April 19—Following house passage last week of the $1,687,000,000 appropriation increasing the Air Force, Congressman Frederick C. Smith, (R-Ohio), told the house: "The congress has appropriated a large amount of funds for increasing the Air Force on the ground that this is urgently needed for national defense. This means that non-defense expenditures must be held to the absolute minimum. Every non-defense appropriation that has already passed the house should be reexamined with a view of reducing it to the lowest possible point and the appropriations still pending should be treated in the same manner.

"The nation must remain solvent in order to have sound defense against possible aggression. It is the patriotic duty of every American citizen to cooperate with the congress not only to reduce existing burdens, but to prevent others being imposed.

WORLD ASSOCIATION OF EDITORS URGED

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 19—Erwin D. Canham, new president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, called today for the formation of an international organization of editors as one step toward better world understanding.

Canham, editor of the Christian Science Monitor, became president of the society at the close of its three-day convention Saturday night.

He is a delegate to the United Nations conference on freedom of information now in progress at Geneva. Asked to name the foremost problem facing editors this year, Canham told a reporter:

"There are two things. The first is continued vigilance to maintain freedom of the press within the United States.

"The second is to cooperate with fellow newspapermen in other countries of the world, to forward our mutual ideals of peace and understanding."

Canham succeeds N. R. Howard of the Cleveland News in the presidency. L. R. Blanchard, editorial director of the Gannett Newspapers, Rochester, N. Y., was the new addition to ASNE's board of directors.

At their final banquet the editors heard President Truman plead anew in a broadcast address for his five-month-old anti-inflation program.

IS THIS THE
"Sweetest riding story ever told"?

SOMETIMES we get just a bit upset over our engineers.

A cautious bunch, their tendency toward understatement now and then lets us overlook some mighty good bets.

About all they wanted to say about their new Hi-Poised power was that it went much further than anything else they knew toward controlling engine vibration frequencies.

They let us say it would make engine sensation "practically imperceptible."

That it would do away with a lot of shudder that often passes for clutch chatter. That it would "have an effect" on riding softness and quiet.

Well! Folks have now had a chance to try out our '48 beauties with Hi-Poised power—and you should hear what they say!

"Sweetest ride of any car," they tell us.

"Such smoothness — it's unbelievable!" "What have you done?—It's wonderful!"

What we did was apply a wholly new system of engine mounting.

It's a system that suspends the engine, much as in a cradle. This leaves it free to rock, bob or "wag its tail" (as every engine must)—yet maintains firm control of each movement at all times and speeds.

Add this to other things—big, soft tires on extra wide Safety-Ride rims; gentle coil springs on all four wheels; ample size and weight to master jounce and jitter—and what do you get?

A definitely "sweeter" feel to the whole car. Soft, level going—with firm, sure footing. Lightness—with positive and dependable control.

In a phrase—"the sweetest riding story ever told," as it has been put.

Naturally, we'd like to have you size up our new Vibra-Shielded ride too.

After all, there's more to any car than meets the eye, even in this eye-winning beauty. And maybe this sweet and lovely ride is just what you've been waiting for.

Better see your Buick dealer, whether or not you have a car to trade—and get your order in.

SECRET OF THE VIBRA-SHIELDED RIDE
Two fat cushions of special composition, and placed with scientific accuracy, suspend the Buick engine at the points where vibration is most readily controlled. A third new mounting at the rear completes a precise system of controlling engine vibration frequencies. The result is to shield the entire car against vibration buildup and make a noticeably smoother ride.

WAGNER BACKS TAFT IN HOUSING DISPUTE

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 19—A senate Democrat today pledged full backing to Sen. Taft in the Ohio Republican's dispute with Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) over a long-range housing bill.

The Democratic backing came from Sen. Wagner of New York. He, Taft and Sen. Ellender (D-La) are sponsors of a revised version of the original bill bearing their names.

The senate might vote today on senate banking committee amendments which have Taft's approval.

If adopted—and Taft predicted they would be—they would replace a batch of McCarthy amendments written into the Taft-Ellender-Wagner bill last week.

Wagner said in a statement he was "giving my unqualified support" to the banking committee amendments. But he said:

"Undoubtedly we could make further improvements in this legislation if we added more time to the four years already given to the study, hearings, investigations and legislative drafting which have brought us to the present point.

"But the housing crisis which we are endeavoring to meet has not waited. It is still upon us in full force. It is forcing nearly 3,000,000 families to double up with in-laws and other families. It is making the slums which are the breeding ground for crime and delinquency the environment in which millions of our children are being reared. * * * *

"Let us get some experience with comprehensive housing legislation before we think about further refinements."

The bill would authorize a huge slum clearance program under federal loans and subsidies.

SAYS RACE PROTEST PLANS UNDER WAY

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 19 — Grant Reynolds, a Negro, told congress today a nationwide campaign of civil disobedience has been started in protest against segregation of races within the armed services.

Reynolds testified before the house armed services committee as national chairman of the "Committee Against Jim Crow in Military Service and Training." The committee is considering a military draft bill.

He showed the committee a card saying he will not be drafted for "Jim Crow military service"

Reynolds said this is the first such card to be signed. They will be circulated nationally, he testified, and others of all races will be urged to sign them.

Besides the cards, Reynolds said, his organization has placed an order for 100,000 buttons with the inscription "Don't Join a Jim Crow Army."

Reynolds continued:

"Upon delivery we expect to launch the sale of these buttons—outside the White House and on the steps of the Capitol. In this way, we hope to impress the mind of white America that Negroes have had enough of this bi-partisan maneuvering on civil rights and that, come what may, we are withdrawing our support of Herr Jim Crow."

Sen. Bridges (R-NH), meanwhile urged quick action on a 70-group air force. Bridges said in a statement:

"The senate appropriations committee (of which he is chairman) is prepared to act swiftly regarding air force defense or any other national security matters placed before us.

"I have always been an advocate of air policy as a key to any national defense program," he said.

TRUMAN PRAISES EXAMPLE OF CUBA

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 19 — Truman today cited Cuba's struggle for freedom a half century ag as an "inspiration for the nar tasks that confront us in o own time."

"Our own moment of history," the chief executive told a joi session of congress," also calls fo calmness, for courage, for strength and above all for the steadfas resolution that, come what may we shall stand for the right."

Mr. Truman's address was prepared for ceremonies marking the fiftieth anniversary of congressional action declaring Cuba free of Spanish rule.

The president paid tribute to the "valor of the Cuban patriot and American soldiers and sailors who gave liberally of thei strength and their blood." He declared:

"The challenge of our time, like the one met so successfully of those we honor today, tests the mettle of men and their institution of government."

Mr. Truman noted that only 90 miles of water separate this country from Cuba and that the two vary greatly in size and strength.

Yet, he went on, "they collaborate harmoniously on a basis of equal soverignty and independence of action."

Although he mentioned no other countries by name, the president left little doubt he had Russia and some of her satellites in mind when he added:

"The same harmonious relationship can prevail among all nations, provided they possess a genuine desire for peace and firm resolve to respect the freedom and the rights of others.

RILCO POST FREE MACHINE SHEDS
BUILT WITH RILCO RAFTERS MORE USABLE ROOM!
Here's the modern Rilco Machine Shed you've always wanted. Its interior is completely free of posts and braces giving wide unobstructed floor space. It makes it easy to get your machinery in and out. Plenty of height for larger implements. More protection for your machinery because this Rilco building is convenient to use.
Rilco Machine Sheds with their modern streamlined appearance are built with the famous engineered and factory-built Rilco Laminated Wood Rafter Arches. These rafter arches are delivered to your farm ready for erection. Saves labor hours and material.
Rilco rafter arches are the strongest known type of framing. They build stronger, sturdier, more wind-resistant structures. They are continuous framing members running from foundation to roof ridge, thus eliminating the joining of side wall to roof which is the weakest point of ordinary construction. Rilco rafters are securely anchored to sill with special Rilco angle irons, and joined at ridge with Rilco metal ridge plates. You can obtain almost any floor size and height you want.
Come in and see us for more information. A Rilco Machine Shed will serve many uses on your farm—it's the most practical utility building.

In Loving Memory

★Of my husband Charles S. Scheitler who passed away April 19, 1947.

Should you go first and I remain
To walk the road alone,
I'll live in memory's garden, dear,
With happy days we've known.
In spring I'll wait for roses red
When fades the lilac blue,
In fall I'll [illegible] when brown leaves
[illegible]
I'll catch a glimpse of you.

Should you go first and I remain
To finish with the scroll,
And lest no vain shadows shall creep in
To make this life seem droll.
With Him we've known much
happiness,
We've had our cup of joy,
And memory is one gift of God
That death cannot destroy.

Should you go first and I remain,
One thing I'd have you do,
Walk slowly on that homeward
path
For soon I'll follow you.
I'll want to know each step you take
That I may walk the same,
For some day on that lonely road
You'll hear me call your name.

Sadly missed by his wife,
Evaninne Scheitler.

A Safe Way to Learn About Funeral Costs

The safest way to learn about funeral costs is to come and have a frank talk about the matter. It will give you facts rather than rumor as a basis for your judgment. More people are adopting this common sense way of learning about a service that has been too little understood. We invite consultation. It leads to better understanding and satisfied patrons.

UNCLE SAM'S PART OF YOUR TELEPHONE BILL

The Federal tax rate on local telephone service is 15%. The tax rate on long distance service, where the charge is 25c or over, is 25%. Other forms of telephone service are subject to Federal taxes at rates ranging from 8% to 25%.

This tax is imposed by the U. S. Government directly on the user of the telephone. The telephone company, at its own expense, serves as a collector.

Long distance calls and certain other services, being taxed at 25%, are taxed higher than the 20% rate for luxuries such as furs, jewelry, and perfumes.

This form of tax, that is an excise tax on telephone service, has traditionally been resorted to only in national emergencies. Your telephone company believes this form of tax should not be a part of the peace time tax structure. Representatives of the telephone industry have urged and will continue to urge before the proper Congressional committees that these excise taxes now be eliminated; and many users and representatives of users of telephone service are likewise urging that they be repealed by the tax legislation now before the Congress.

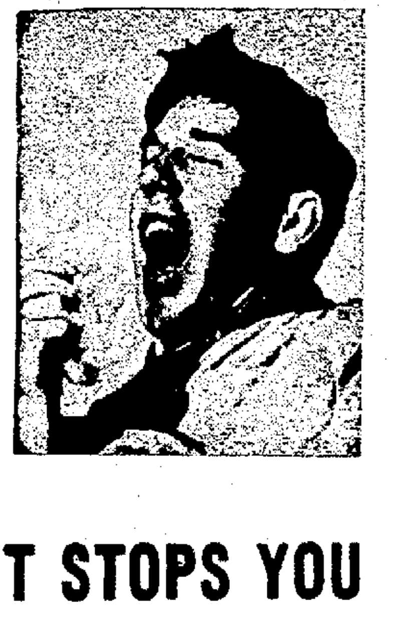
STOP THAT COLD



BEFORE IT STOPS YOU

IN THESE Spring days of touchy weather and wet feet a lot of folks take this WATER WAY to help prevent "the sneezes":

- DRINK plenty of water—at least six glasses a day; more if you feel a cold coming on.
- WASH your hands thoroughly before eating or handling food.
- TAKE a bath every day—it helps to keep your body toned up, and besides germs don't thrive on soap and water.

Marion Cubs Open Four-Game Exhibition Series Wednesday

By BILL DIEM

Come 8 o'clock Wednesday night and "Play ball!" will sound in Lincoln park to open the first of four exhibition games scheduled by the Marion Cubs before the season opener here April 27. The opponent will be the Newark Yankees.

A second home stand will be made under the lights Friday with Lima, and the Cubs will play afternoon games at Lima Saturday and at Newark Sunday.

The talk of the half a stand full of fans who sat in the warm sun yesterday to watch the Cubs play a 12-inning intra-squad practice game was the 1000 batting of outfielder Bill Bohlander, whom a few remembered as having played in a game or two with the Cubs late last season.

Gets 6 for 6

Bill, an 18-year-old right-handed batter from Phillipsburg, O., slammed one over the left field fence in his first trip to the plate, and collected doubles in the fifth, seventh, eighth, and eleventh innings. He singled in the tenth. Six long hits in six trips—Bill earned a berth with the Marion Cubs.

He graduated from high school last June and attended Cub Scout Tony Lucadello's baseball school in Mansfield last summer, coming here in late August. He appeared in several games with the Cubs as a pinch hitter.

This season he came as a second baseman, but played in the outfield yesterday. He is the only outfielder yet that has shown much hitting power. Bill is rather tall and slender, standing loose and relaxed at the plate. He is five-eleven and weighs 156 pounds.

Stubby catcher Tom Gatts made three for five, including a triple, and showed a lot of hustle. Tom hails from Miamisburg, O. He is five feet, seven inches tall and weighs 160 pounds.

Third baseman Bill Bolduc came through again with a homer and two singles in seven times at bat. He got four for seven in an intra-squad game Friday. First baseman Ray Gestaut made three for seven.

Nick Looks Good

Fastball pitcher Nick Alivojvodick (pronounced Al-i-VOY-vodick), a very much improved hurler, allowed two hits and pitched a wild ball in the first inning he worked, but set them down in order from there on.

Ramon Peet, 18-year-old Ashtabula pitcher, had trouble in his first inning, too, and then settled down. He allowed three singles and walked five in the fifth frame.

Ten Cubs were cut off the squad over the weekend to bring the roster down to 26. By opening day April 27, the squad will be down to 20. Under Ohio-Indiana league rules, 20 players may be carried for the first 20 days of the season and then the maximum is 17 players.

HARDING TRACKMEN TO MEET DELAWARE

Harding High school's track team will seek their first win in two starts tomorrow at 4 o'clock when they journey to Delaware to oppose the Willis High school Panthers. The Prexies ran second to Upper Sandusky in their first venture in a dual meet Friday afternoon on the Sandusky hard path.

With little time between now and tomorrow for revamping his trackmen, Coach Somerlot said he would nevertheless devote the one practice session to converting Clarence Smith, 100-yard dash man, to a 120-yard high hurdler and would concentrate more on individual events and less on relays.

PLAY BALL! That cry goes up again as the major league teams begin the pennant campaign today. The Yanks and the Boston Red Sox are figured as the teams to beat in the American league and the Cards, Dodgers and Braves the choices for the National league flag. Five new managers are taking over this season, although one of them, Leo Durocher of the Dodgers, is an old familiar face in the major league picture. Durocher spent the 1947 season away from his beloved Bums following a suspension by Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler. His replacement, Burt Shotten, turned out a pennant winner. The other new managers are Joe Kuhel of the Washington Nats, Zack Taylor of the St. Louis Browns, Billy Meyer of the Pittsburgh Pirates and Joe McCarthy of the Boston Red Sox. Most of the clubs open on Tuesday, April 20. (International).

Pirates, Reds Open NL Race

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, April 19—Pittsburgh's repainted Pirates and Cincinnati's rampant Reds have the National league stage all to themselves today.

Getting a day's jump on the rest of the senior loop, they'll launch the 1948 campaign before an "SRO" crowd of some 35,000 despite announcement by the non-cooperative weatherman that showers were in the offing.

A flock of new faces will be sprinkled among the familiar ones in both lineups, and each club appears stronger than a year ago.

Manager Johnny Neun of the Reds will lead with his ace, elongated and whip-armed Ewell Blackwell, in an attempt to get off on the right foot, while Bill Meyer, new boss of the Pirates, picked Hal Gregg, the former Brooklynite, for mound duties.

Blackwell, baseball's No. 1 pitcher of 1947, has shown impressively during the long training season.

The Reds, aiming at a berth high in the first division, have won 25 or 36 spring games for the most impressive record in the majors.

This and that about the Pittsburgh-Cincinnati National league opener:

Three officials get in on the "first ball" act. Governor Thomas Herbert will toss the ball from his box (No. 149) to Mayor Al Cash on the mound. Mayor Cash will attempt to throw a strike to City Manager W. R. Kellogg, who will attempt to catch it.

Crooner "Bing" Crosby, a part owner of the Pirates, who flew in from Hollywood will be on hand for the opener.

Red officials said the ticket situation was the toughest in the history of the park, every ducat having been sold or spoken for two months ago.

MANAGER BILL MEYER had a good idea in putting Dixie Walker in the fourth spot, behind Ralph Kiner, in the Pirate batting order. Kiner hit 51 home runs last year, and might have banged more had he not received so many walks. With hard-hitting Walker coming up, Meyer believes more pitchers will take a chance on Kiner—to their sorrow.

The Reds wound up their preseason grind yesterday with their fourth straight victory, 12-1, over the Syracuse Chiefs. Frankie Baumholtz hit two singles and a triple, and Johnny Wyrostek three doubles to lead the attack. Each batted in three runs.

SPRINGFIELD PICKED TO TAKE TRACK TITLE

By The Associated Press

MANSFIELD, O., April 19 — Springfield's Wildcats were installed today as early-season favorites for Ohio's 1948 high school track championship.

Coach Ronnie Ronemus' well-balanced squad breezed to victory last weekend in the 17th annual Mansfield Relays, nearly doubling the point total of Cleveland Central's defending state champions.

Springfield gets a second chance at Ohio Wesleyan this weekend to cement claim to being the team to beat this spring. Defending champs in the Delaware Relays classic, the Wildcats are odds-on favorites to repeat.

The 'Cats scored in nine events and piled up 31 7/10 points here. Columbus Central, 1947 Mansfield victor, and Dayton Dunbar tied for second with 23. Cleveland West Tech was fourth with 19 and Cleveland Central fifth with 16½.

Three new meet records went up. Ray Hamilton of Canton McKinley skimmed the 120-yard high hurdles in :14.9, a tenth of a second under the mark set by Bob Wright of Huntington, W. Va., in 1938. Arkon North's foursome ran the four-mile relay in 15.25.2, well under Cleveland Cathedral Latin's 19:41.1 last year. Springfield took the shuttle relay over low hurdles in :58.1, clipping eight-tenths of a second off Toledo Devilbiss' 1947 mark.

Here's how the other teams finished:

Canton McKinley 16, Akron North 15, Akron East 12, Cleveland Collinwood 11, Ambridye, Pa., 10; Barberton 9, Cleveland Benedictine 8, Newark 8, Mansfield 7 1/5, Oak Harbor 6, Cleveland Collinwood 11, Ambridge 4, Mingo Junction 4, Conneaut 4, Upper Sandusky 4, Galion 4, Euclid Shore 4, Warren 4, Reynoldsburg 4, Niles McKinley 3, East Palestine 3, Louisville 3, Euclid Central 3, Akron South 2 1/5, Euclid Brush 2, Lima Central 2, Oberlin 1, New Castle, Pa., 1, Osborn-Bath 1/5, Akron Buchtel 1/5.

Tribe Steals Giant Thunder

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, April 19—"Baseball is a funny business," says centerfielder Thurman Tucker of the Cleveland Indians.

Some 16,000 Indians fans agreed with him today after watching their favorites close a long exhibition season yesterday with a thunder-stealing 13-2 trouncing of the usually potent New York Giants at Lakefront stadium.

The victory, which saw three home runs and 13 hits ring from the Tribe's bats, lifted the club to an 8-9 record for the grapefruit series with the Giants and a 20-14 mark for the entire spring training season.

"It's a funny racket," said Tucker after the game. "One day you're slated for the ashcan—then the next day you go out and get a few bingles and you're a major league regular."

The Chicago White Sox castoff, who will be in the starting lineup in the Indians' opener against the St. Louis Browns tomorrow, tallied two Cleveland runs with a bit of nifty base-running—including a double steal with rookie Larry Doby.

Joe Gordon, recruit catcher Ray Murray and winning pitcher Bob Lemon provided most of the Indians' thunder, however, with home runs which accounted for seven Cleveland runs. Lemon also held the Giants to two runs in eight innings to cement his position as No. 2 Tribe hurler.

Lou Boudreau hinted he may juggle his opening day lineup to include Doby, the Negro flash who added two hits yesterday to sport one of the team's leading spring batting averages.

BUCK GRIDDER INJURED

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., April 19—Mike Cannavino, first-string halfback, is lost for the remainder of Ohio State university's spring football drills. He suffered a rib separation in Saturday's scrimmage and trainer Ernie Biggs said yesterday Cannavino would be unable to play until fall. Cannavino, a Clevelander, was hampered by injuries last fall, but won first-team honors in spring practice.

"Play Ball" Will Sound in Thre Parks As Majors Open Seaso

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 19—Major league baseball teams kno down to serious business today with both the National and Amer leagues opening their 1948 baseball seasons.

The cry "play ball" will sound at Washington, Boston and C cinnati with 125,000 fans expected to witness the proceedi

The world champion New York Yankees, picked by the experts to win their second straight American league pennant, will begin defense of their laurels at Washington.

A crowd of 31,000—including President Harry S. Truman who will toss out the first ball—is expected to watch the New York-Washington battle.

Reynolds vs. Wynn

Allie Reynolds, who blanked Washington in the 1947 inaugural, is slated to hurl for the Yanks with Early Wynn pitching for Washington.

However, before either Reynolds or Wynn even warm up, the first official game should be in the record books.

This game was scheduled at Boston where the Red Sox take on the Philadelphia Athletics in a morning and afternoon double-header. Boston officials expect 60,000 fans to take in the twin bill.

National league warfare opens at Cincinnati where the Reds entertain the Pittsburgh Pirates. About 35,000 fans are expected.

Ewell Blackwell, the majors' top winner with 22 triumphs in 1947, has been nominated to hurl for the Reds against Pittsburgh's Hal Gregg, off-season acquisition from Brooklyn.

Rest Start Tomorrow

The remaining clubs will begin playing for keeps Tuesday. The St. Louis Cardinals, picked to win the National league pennant, entertain Cincinnati. The defending champion Brooklyn Dodgers meet the home-run hitting Giants in New York. Other National league games find Boston at Philadelphia and Chicago at Pittsburgh.

In the American league tomorrow, New York is at Washington, Detroit at Chicago and St. Louis at Cleveland. The Athletics and Red Sox are idle.

If the attendance at yesterday's exhibition games is any criterion, the majors are in for one of their greatest years at the gate.

A total of 198,427 fans witnessed the eight games played by th clubs with the tussle between Dodgers and Yanks at the Ya Stadium drawing the most—62, a record for an exhibition ga The Dodgers, however, beat t 1947 World Series foes, 5-3 spoil the 25th anniversary of opening of the Yankee stadiu

Radio Tune Guesser Richer by $17,000

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 19—A Winston-Salem, N. C., man was $17,000 richer today because he correctly guessed a mystery tune on the radio.

The winner, Reginald Turner, of Winston-Salem, was awarded prizes which included a car, a 38-day cruise and a $1,000 bond. He is married and is employed by the Veterans administration.

The program on ABC started March 21. During broadcasts telephone numbers were selected and the person answering the call was asked to identify a melody played by the studio orchestra. If that tune was identified, the person was asked to identify the mystery melody.

Turner last night guessed the first number and when the mystery tune was played he gave the correct answer, "Vision of Salome."

LEGAL NOTICE

In the matter of the Single County Ditch, No. 394, petitioned for by Ward Walton, et al.

To each person signing or named in the petition and to each other person affected by said improvement.

You and each of you are hereby notified that on the 7th day of April, 1948, the above named petitioner filed a petition with the County Auditor of Marion County, Ohio, for the construction, reconstruction, straightening, deepening and widening of part of the Sweeney Single County Ditch and cleaning out and repairing of the north branch of the tile ditch. The construction of the improvement is necessary and will be conducive to the public welfare.

The following is the course and termini of said proposed improvement, to-wit: Commencing at a point in the open part of the Sweeney Ditch at the end of the tile that comes from a northeasterly direction; said point being known as Station 102-40 and said point being in the west half of the northeast quarter of Section 26 on lands owned by Lester D. and Elva M. Watts; thence following the course of said Sweeney ditch in a westerly direction through the lands of the said Lester D. Watts being the northwest quarter of Section 26 crossing the county road No. 26 at a point about 30 rods east of the northeast quarter of Section 27; thence continuing in a northwesterly direction on the line of said Sweeney Ditch about 40 rods or far enough to give a good and sufficient outlet. Said open part being about 1¼ miles in length. Being in Salt Rock Township, Marion County, Ohio. Also beginning at the end of the tile at said Station 102-40, and being the north tile drain and following the same in an easterly direction and clean out said north tile drain and replace all broken tile with new tile of the same size and continuing in an easterly direction so far as said tile drain needs repairing and cleaning out. Said tile drain is referred to as the Sweeney-Goose Pond Ditch No. 356. The length of said tile drain that needs repairing and cleaning out, in the opinion of the petitioners being about 1½ miles, making a total length of said ditch of both open and tile 2¾ miles.

It is claimed that the improvement will affect property owned by you.

You are therefore notified that the Board of Commissioners of Marion County, Ohio, have fixed the 29th day of April, 1948, at 10 o'clock A. M., at the upper terminus of the improvement for the view thereon and have fixed the 6th day of May, 1948, at 10 o'clock A. His program, it was stated, calls for the fortification of Sicily because "the U.S. will launch its first attack against Europe through Sicily." It also calls for the immediate closing of Italian frontiers.

FIVE ALARMS KEEP CITY FIREMEN BUSY

Many Calls but Little Damage Reported Here.

City firemen, after three uneventful days last week, responded to five calls over the weekend and one this morning which included a roof fire, a shed, two automobiles, a false alarm and a grass fire, with an estimated $100 damage.

A fire at the home of Joseph Frisina Saturday at 12:45 p. m. resulted in an estimated $50 damage when sparks from the chimney drifted onto the roof and set it ablaze. Central station and West Center street firemen answered the call, and while returning to the fire house at 1:17, stopped to quench a blaze originating from a short circuit in the generator of a car owned by George McPherson of Prospect which was parked in the City lot at the corner of South Prospect and Church streets. No damage was reported.

Sunday at 1:30 p. m. at the rear of the State Drug company at 134 South State street a fire resulting from a lighted cigaret in a rubbish can set fire to a shed behind the building. Loss was estimated at $25. Fire companies One and Four responded.

A second automobile fire occurred at 7:28 p. m. Sunday at the corner of Center street and Sharpless court when the wiring in the coil leading to the distributor of a car driven by Kenneth Armbruster of Caledonia short circuited Damage was estimated at $25. Prospect street firemen responded.

A grass fire at 9:06 p. m. was extinguished by engine company number 2 near Cayuga street along the Erie railroad right-of-way. The fire originated from locomotive sparks. There was no damage.

This morning about 8:30 Mrs. Lowell Shambaugh of 555 North State street, who was washing clothes in the basement, called the fire department when she heard an explosion and saw steam in her kitchen. Firemen from West Center street and Mark street stations answered the summons, and discovered that the nozzle of a hose being used to run hot water from a heater to a tub had been turned off but the water left on. The hose broke, causing the explosion and filling the room with steam.

TAG DAY NETS $200 IN DRIVE

Cancer Campaign Fund Boosted by Junior Chamber of Commerce Activity.

Approximately $200 was received in voluntary contributions Saturday when members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce conducted a "tag day" for the benefit of the drive being conducted this month by the Marion County Chapter of the American Cancer Society. Working in hourly shifts the members, assisted by the Business and Professional Women's Clubs, were on the streets of the business district from 10 a. m. until 5 p. m. William Noel was chairman of the committee in charge of the tag day plans and assisting were Lawrence Wenger, William Parks, Russell Wenger, Richard Lister and Jack Lautenslager.

Fight Cancer

The chapter's goal for Marion county is $7,500.

The next report meeting on the progress of the drive will be Wednesday night in the parish house of St. Paul Episcopal church. Mrs. Frederick T. Merchant, chairman of the house-to-house canvass, will be in charge of the meeting set for 7 o'clock. At this time, Mrs. Merchant states, it is hoped that complete reports will be made.

Business and Professional club members and members of the Marion Altrusa club are assisting in the drive by receiving contribution in the lobbies of the Palace and Ohio theaters. Members of the B. and P. W. club were at the two theaters Saturday night and Sunday and also will be stationed at both places tonight and Tuesday night to receive contributions. Members of the Altrusa club were at both theaters Sunday and will be on hand Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

Proceeds of the opening day for the picture, "Sitting Pretty," which starts Friday at the Ohio theater, will be turned over to the cancer fund. Tickets are now being sold by workers and persons wishing to assist by purchasing tickets may obtain them from the workers or at the Kerrey Jewelry store. Arrangements for the benefit are in charge of Mrs. Walter E. Hane and Mrs. Harold K. Mouser, and they are being assisted by Mrs. Charles Kerrey. The tickets sell for 50 cents which includes tax. Holders of tickets are urged to attend the afternoon show when possible.

Labels Spy Charges Part of Soviet Smear

By The Associated Press

BERLIN, April 19—American correspondent Robert Magidoff says spy charges that brought his expulsion from Russia were "trumped up," apparently as a Soviet smear of foreigners.

He told interviewers upon his arrival from Moscow yesterday he believed the accusation was "for internal propaganda purposes," part of a campaign to discredit foreigners, especially Americans, in Russia.

Magidoff said Soviet leaders want to isolate their people from such foreigners and also are trying now "to make their people believe they are just as good or better than any other people."

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

By AP Newsfeatures

GETULIO VARGAS, born April 19, 1883 in Sao Borja, Brazil, ruled Brazil for the longest presidential term in the nation's history.

In 1937 he led the armed uprising which placed him at the head of the hemisphere's largest nation.

In the years which followed he weathered three uprisings, declared a second republic, and established a tight, centrally controlled government.

After his overthrow in 1945 he was elected to the Brazilian senate.

One Man's Opinion

With the ending of the Italian election millions of citizens there now will have time to tell us how to vote.

In China, Chiang Kai shek was reluctant to take another term as president and he didn't have to run against Stassen.

Dewey is amazed at losing two farm states . . . He thought he had more pull in the cow country.

But Tom's supporters say he can still spot Harold the state of Ohio, including the river and its tributaries.

Meanwhile the Wallace party plans a Philadelphia convention to draft a platform. They could pick up two platforms for free . . . Democrats and Republicans never have been known to take a platform with them when they adjourn.

The latest word from the White House is that the whole building is to be fireproofed . . . Harry is determined to make this a hot campaign.
